No. 79.—The following rules sanctioned tentatively in regard to the sale of the pasturage of unoccupied Government lands are published for general information :—

I. As a tentative measure, no hulbanni sales shall take place during the current year.

II. The average hulbanni realizations of each village during the years 1882-83 and 1883-84 shall be carefully calculated, and the grazing of all unoccupied Government lands of the village shall be offered for the amount thus ascertained to the inhabitants of the village for the current year.

III. If the villagers accept the grazing on these conditions, the amount to be paid by the whole village shall be apportioned by the various land-holders and other residents of the village among themselves, and a list showing the amount payable by each individual according to such apportionment shall be prepared and signed by all the villagers interested. The list shall also be signed by the Patel and Shanbhog. It must be distinctly understood that the apportionment of the total amount payable by the village among individual members thereof, is a matter of private agreement between themselves.

IV. The Amildar shall scrutinize such lists and question the villagers as to whether they are satisfied with the arrangements therein recorded. Each individual against whom an amount is entered should be thus questioned. If, upon such enquiry, the Amildar is satisfied that the arrangement is one to which all parties interested have given their assent, he shall certify this fact under his hand on the lists in question, which shall thereupon be recorded with the Shanbhog. The amount specified in these lists against any individual shall thereupon be entered as the demand against him in his Kháte and shall be recoverable from him as a revenue demand.

V. If the inhabitants of any village are unwilling to accept the grazing of the unoccupied Government lands of the village for the amount fixed therefor by para 2, or if they cannot agree among themselves as to the apportionment of this amount, or if, at the Amildar's enquiry, there arise disputes regarding such amount or its apportionment, then the right of grazing in the village concerned shall be sold on the spot as heretofore.

VI. In villages the grazing right of which may be given to the villagers by agreement as above, there shall be no restrictions whatever placed upon the grazing of unoccupied Government lands by the cattle of the village.

VII. Instead of disposing of the grazing of each village as above directed, the Amildar may, where found necessary, arrange the villages in convenient groups and dispose of the grazing of each such group separately. Such grouping should be made with strict regard to existing grazing arrangements, and as far as possible with the consent of the villages concerned.

TRANSFER OF SAVINGS BANKS ACCOUNTS.

To—Deputy Commissioners, Treasury Department, Circular No. 1592, dated 9th July 1884.

Several instances having lately occurred where District Treasury Officers in Mysore from a misapprehension of the late Chief Commissioner's Notification No. 23 of 27th April 1880 have issued public service transfer receipts on other District Treasuries in re-payment of Savings Bank deposits to private individuals, the Comptroller has the honor to point out that the permission applied only to cases when the depositor desired to invest his Savings Bank deposits in Government Loans. To obviate any misapplication of the rule it is requested that District Treasury Officers will refer any application of this nature to this Office for orders.

Ordinary transfers of balance of Savings Bank deposits from one Treasury to another in the name of the depositor should be made on the terms laid down in Rule 56 of Chapter 19 of the Civil Account Code, Vol. I, 3rd edition.

Section 57.

Substitute the following for Clause (l) of this Section and the Note under it :—

The following rules regulate the powers of the Government of India and of Local Governments in sanctioning deputations and temporary appointments, and the rates of deputation allowance :—

(i) An officer is said to be on deputation when he is detached on special temporary duty for the performance of which there is no permanently or temporarily sanctioned appointment. A temporary appointment is an appointment carrying a definite rate of pay and sanctioned for a limited time.

(ii) A temporary appointment, if the cost is Provincial, may be sanctioned by a Local Government without reference to the Government of India, provided the pay of the appointment does not exceed Rs. 3,000 a year. If the cost is Imperial, a temporary appointment requires the sanction of the Government of India; but if the pay of the appointment does not exceed Rs. 3,000 a year, it will be sufficient to include it in the statement of fresh charges submitted to the Government of India, unless it should last for more than a year. In the latter case, a special application must be made for the sanction of the Supreme Government.

(iii) Temporary appointments on more than Rs. 250 a month will be reported to Her Majesty's Secretary of State in the Annual Statement of Increases and Decreases of Expenditure, or separately in each instance, according to the nature of the case.

(iv) An officer may be deputed on special duty by a Local Government without reference to the Government of India, and without limit of time, if the cost of the deputation is Provincial, and if the remuneration granted to the officer is not at a higher rate than Rs. 3,000 a year. An officer may not be deputed on special duty by a Local Government if the cost is Imperial without the sanction of the Government of India.

(v) An officer, no matter what his salary, may be deputed on special duty by a Local Government for a period not exceeding six months, provided the cost of the deputation is Provincial, and he may be allowed by the Local Government to draw the pay or salary which, but for his deputation, he would have continued to draw either as substantive or officiating. If the duties involve a decided increase of work or responsibility in comparison with the duties of his regular appointment, or require a change of station, the Local Government may in addition allow the officer to draw a deputation allowance at a rate not exceeding one-fifth of salary, subject to a maximum limit of Rs. 10 a day.

If it is expected that the deputation should last for more than six months, or if it does actually last for more than six months, a special application for the sanction of the Government of India must be made.

Deputation allowances are granted independently of any travelling allowance which may be admissible.

[Note.—"Local Government," for the purposes of these rules, includes a Chief Commissioner, the Resident at Hyderabad, the Agents to the Governor General for Rajputana and Central India, and a Department of the Government of India.]

Steam Woollen Mills, 27, Dickenson Road.

Prospectus.

This Company is formed for the purpose of taking over the "Bangalore Steam Woollen Mills,"—Machinery, Fixtures, and Good-will, at a valuation of 30,800 Rs. in 308 fully paid-up shares of 100 Rs. each; and for importing additional machinery so as to run 1,500 spindles, producing 1,000 lb. of yarn and 50 looms weaving 750 yards of cloth per day. And after the Woollen business has been firmly established ; or whenever the Directors shall be of opinion that, it will be advantageous to the Shareholders, to extend the Woollen works, or to introduce the manufacture of Cotton, or Silk, and the same be passed by votes of the Shareholders at a General Meeting, then remaining half of the Shares, or such portion thereof as may be voted, shall be issued, and the Shareholders shall have the prior right of subscribing for the same to the extent of the Shares already held by each.

The Machinery and Plant of the existing Mill consist of a complete set of wool carding, spinning, weaving, milling and finishing machines ; a 12 H. P. Steam Engine, Hydraulic and Hand-baling presses, Sewing machines, Hand-looms, Spinning wheels, &c, &c.

A Woollen Factory employing manual labor was established, as an experiment, by Mr. Standish Lee in 1877, to ascertain what opening there was for such an undertaking. The receipts commenced with Rs. 10—10—0 in September of that year and reached Rs. 4,624 in December 1879. The experimental stage having therefore ceased, the Proprietor was induced to order out machinery with all the latest improvements and to procure the necessary steam power. These machines have now been working for some time, and the monthly average out-turn, since January 1884, is about Rs. 3,000.

The books of the Mill are open to intending subscribers, for ascertaining the facts set forth above, and for judging the profits made.

The following fact will suffice to show that the undertaking must pay large dividents. Cotton is purchased at Madras at 4 annas per lb., spun there by the steam mills, and the yarn sold, with a profit, at 5¼ annas per lb. The average price of wool is 1½ annas per lb., and Woollen goods, it is well known, fetch larger returns than Cotton. If, therefore, Cotton purchased at 4 annas, can be sold as mule twist at 5¼ annas, and mills employed in such work yield from 15 to 25 per cent., wool purchased at 1½ annas and sold at 8 annas a lb, must necessarily yield a very much larger profit.

From the Proceedings of the Dewan of Mysore, No. 869—11, dated 19th April 1884, it will be seen, that the Company starts with valuable concessions, unusual advantages, and every safeguard against miscarriage. The latter condition is most essential in an undertaking which is bound to prove an example to all Public Companies, which may hereafter be started, to develop the enormous resources of this Province that lie at present unproductive, from want of Capital to work them ; and which Capital can only be raised by the formation of Public Companies on a sound footing.

The Direction, and Board of Management, represent entirely local interests, and will therefore, work the Mill on the most economic principles. The undertaking is also one that can be judged from results already obtained, and therefore does not contain the elements of conjecture, speculation, and calculation, as to probable results, on which industries new and untried in the Province must of necessity be based.

Among the Provisional Directors are some of the best known, and most influential public men of the Province, and their presence on the Board of Direction, is a guarantee, that neither promotion-money, bonus, nor commission shall be paid to any party. The appointment of two Ex-officio Directors, is a proof of the interest taken by the Government for advancing this undertaking, and securing its success.

The remuneration of the Agents will consist of 10 per cent, on the net profits of the Company.

It is expected, that the Mill will be erected and the additional machinery set up and fully at work, before the end of December 1884.

Applications for shares must be accompanied by a payment of 10 Rs. per share. The subscription list will be closed on the 31st August 1884.

Should no allotment be made, the deposit will be returned in full.

Prospectuses, Articles of Association, and Forms of application for shares, may be obtained from the Secretary's Office, Bangalore.

Steam Woollen Mills, 27, Dickenson Road.

PROSPECTUS.

This Company is formed for the purpose of taking over the "Bangalore Steam Woollen Mills,"—Machinery, Fixtures, and Good-will, at a valuation of 30,800 Rs. in 308 fully paid-up shares of 100 Rs. each; and for importing additional machinery so as to run 1,500 spindles, producing 1,000 lb. of yarn and 50 looms weaving 750 yards of cloth per day. And after the Woollen business has been firmly established; or whenever the Directors shall be of opinion that, it will be advantageous to the Shareholders, to extend the Woollen works, or to introduce the manufacture of Cotton, or Silk, and the same be passed by votes of the Shareholders at a General Meeting, then remaining half of the Shares, or such portion thereof as may be voted, shall be issued, and the Shareholders shall have the prior right of subscribing for the same to the extent of the Shares already held by each.

The Machinery and Plant of the existing Mill consist of a complete set of wool carding, spinning, weaving, milling and finishing machines; a 12 H. P. Steam Engine, Hydraulic and Hand-baling presses, Sewing machines, Hand-looms, Spinning wheels, &c, &c.

A Woollen Factory employing manual labor was established, as an experiment, by Mr. Standish Lee in 1877, to ascertain what opening there was for such an undertaking. The receipts commenced with Rs. 10—10—0 in September of that year and reached Rs. 4,624 in December 1879. The experimental stage having therefore ceased, the Proprietor was induced to order out machinery with all the latest improvements and to procure the necessary st am power. These machines have now been working for some time, and the monthly average out-turn, since January 1884, is about Rs. 3,000.

The books of the Mill are open to intending subscribers, for ascertaining the facts set forth above, and for judging the profits made.

The following fact will suffice to show that the undertaking must pay large dividents. Cotton is purchased at Madras at 4 annas per lb., spun there by the steam mills, and the yarn sold, with a profit, at 5¼ annas per lb. The average price of wool is 1½ annas per lb., and Woollen goods, it is well known, fetch larger returns than Cotton. If, therefore, Cotton purchased at 4 annas, can be sold as mule twist at 5¼ annas, and mills employed in such work yield from 15 to 25 per cent., wool purchased at 1½ annas and sold at 8 annas a lb, must necessarily yield a very much larger profit.

From the Proceedings of the Dewan of Mysore, No. 869—11, dated 19th April 1884, it will be seen, that the Company starts with valuable concessions, unusual advantages, and every safeguard against miscarriage. The latter condition is most essential in an undertaking which is bound to prove an example to all Public Companies, which may hereafter be started, to develop the enormous resources of this Province that lie at present unproductive, from want of Capital to work them; and which Capital can only be raised by the formation of Public Companies on a sound footing.

The Direction, and Board of Management, represent entirely local interests, and will therefore work the Mill on the most economic principles. The undertaking is also one that can be judged from results already obtained, and therefore does not contain the elements of conjecture, speculation, and calculation, as to probable results, on which industries new and untried in the Province must of necessity be based.

Among the Provisional Directors are some of the best known, and most influential public men of the Province, and their presence on the Board of Direction, is a guarantee, that neither promotion-money, bonus, nor commission shall be paid to any party. The appointment of two Ex-officio Directors, is a proof of the interest taken by the Government for advancing this undertaking, and securing its success.

The remuneration of the Agents will consist of 10 per cent, on the net profits of the Company.

It is expected, that the Mill will be erected and the additional machinery set up and fully at work, before the end of December 1884.

Applications for shares must be accompanied by a payment of 10 Rs. per share. The subscription list will be closed on the 31st August 1884.

Should no allotment be made, the deposit will be returned in full.

Prospectuses, Articles of Association, and Forms of application for shares, may be obtained from the Secretary's Office, Bangalore.

E. R. ANDREWS,
Secretary (Pro tem).

Steam Woollen Mills, 27, Dickenson Road.

PROSPECTUS.

This Company is formed for the purpose of taking over the "Bangalore Steam Woollen Mills,"—Machinery, Fixtures, and Good-will, at a valuation of 30,800 Rs. in 308 fully paid-up shares of 100 Rs. each; and for importing additional machinery so as to run 1,500 spindles, producing 1,000 lb. of yarn and 50 looms weaving 750 yards of cloth per day. And after the Woollen business has been firmly established; or whenever the Directors shall be of opinion that, it will be advantageous to the Shareholders, to extend the Woollen works, or to introduce the manufacture of Cotton, or Silk, and the same be passed by votes of the Shareholders at a General Meeting, then remaining half of the Shares, or such portion thereof as may be voted, shall be issued, and the Shareholders shall have the prior right of subscribing for the same to the extent of the Shares already held by each.

The Machinery and Plant of the existing Mill consist of a complete set of wool carding, spinning, weaving, milling and finishing machines; a 12 H. P. Steam Engine, Hydraulic and Hand-baling presses, Sewing machines, Hand-looms, Spinning wheels, &c., &c.

A Woollen Factory employing manual labor was established, as an experiment, by Mr. Standish Lee in 1877, to ascertain what opening there was for such an undertaking. The receipts commenced with Rs. 10—10—0 in September of that year and reached Rs. 4,624 in December 1879. The experimental stage having therefore ceased, the Proprietor was induced to order out machinery with all the latest improvements and to procure the necessary steam power. These machines have now been working for some time, and the monthly average out-turn, since January 1884, is about Rs. 3,000.

The books of the Mill are open to intending subscribers, for ascertaining the facts set forth above, and for judging the profits made.

The following fact will suffice to show that the undertaking must pay large dividents. Cotton is purchased at Madras at 4 annas per lb., spun there by the steam mills, and the yarn sold, with a profit, at 5¼ annas per lb. The average price of wool is 1½ annas per lb., and Woollen goods, it is well known, fetch larger returns than Cotton. If, therefore, Cotton purchased at 4 annas, can be sold as mule twist at 5¼ annas, and mills employed in such work yield from 15 to 25 per cent., wool purchased at 1½ annas and sold at 8 annas a lb., must necessarily yield a very much larger profit.

From the Proceedings of the Dewan of Mysore, No. 869—11, dated 19th April 1884, it will be seen, that the Company starts with valuable concessions, unusual advantages, and every safeguard against miscarriage. The latter condition is most essential in an undertaking which is bound to prove an example to all Public Companies, which may hereafter be started, to develop the enormous resources of this Province that lie at present unproductive, from want of Capital to work them; and which Capital can only be raised by the formation of Public Companies on a sound footing.

The Direction, and Board of Management, represent entirely local interests, and will therefore work the Mill on the most economic principles. The undertaking is also one that can be judged from results already obtained, and therefore does not contain the elements of conjecture, speculation, and calculation, as to probable results, on which industries new and untried in the Province must of necessity be based.

Among the Provisional Directors are some of the best known, and most influential public men of the Province, and their presence on the Board of Direction, is a guarantee, that neither promotion-money, bonus, nor commission shall be paid to any party. The appointment of two Ex-officio Directors, is a proof of the interest taken by the Government for advancing this undertaking, and securing its success.

The remuneration of the Agents will consist of 10 per cent on the net profits of the Company.

It is expected that the Mill will be erected and the additional machinery set up and fully at work, before the end of December 1884.

Applications for shares must be accompanied by a payment of 10 Rs. per share. The subscription list will be closed on the 31st August 1884.

Should no allotment be made, the deposit will be returned in full.

Prospectuses, Articles of Association, and Forms of application for shares, may be obtained from the Secretary's Office, Bangalore.

Steam Woollen Mills, 27, Dickenson Road.

PROSPECTUS.

This Company is formed for the purpose of taking over the "Bangalore Steam Woollen Mills,"—Machinery, Fixtures, and Good-will, at a valuation of 30,800 Rs. in 308 fully paid-up shares of 100 Rs. each; and for importing additional machinery so as to run 1,500 spindles, producing 1,000 lb. of yarn and 50 looms weaving 750 yards of cloth per day. And after the Woollen business has been firmly established; or whenever the Directors shall be of opinion that, it will be advantageous to the Shareholders, to extend the Woollen works, or to introduce the manufacture of Cotton, or Silk, and the same be passed by votes of the Shareholders at a General Meeting, then remaining half of the Shares, or such portion thereof as may be voted, shall be issued, and the Shareholders shall have the prior right of subscribing for the same to the extent of the Shares already held by each.

The Machinery and Plant of the existing Mill consist of a complete set of wool carding, spinning, weaving, milling and finishing machines; a 12 H. P. Steam Engine, Hydraulic and Hand-baling presses, Sewing machines, Hand-looms, Spinning wheels, &c., &c.

A Woollen Factory employing manual labor was established, as an experiment, by Mr. Standish Lee in 1877, to ascertain what opening there was for such an undertaking. The receipts commenced with Rs. 10—10—0 in September of that year and reached Rs. 4,624 in December 1879. The experimental stage having therefore ceased, the Proprietor was induced to order out machinery with all the latest improvements and to procure the necessary steam power. These machines have now been working for some time, and the monthly average out-turn, since January 1884, is about Rs. 3,000.

The books of the Mill are open to intending subscribers, for ascertaining the facts set forth above, and for judging the profits made.

The following fact will suffice to show that the undertaking must pay large dividents. Cotton is purchased at Madras at 4 annas per lb., spun there by the steam mills, and the yarn sold, with a profit, at 5¼ annas per lb. The average price of wool is 1½ annas per lb., and Woollen goods, it is well known, fetch larger returns than Cotton. If, therefore, Cotton purchased at 4 annas, can be sold as mule twist at 5¼ annas, and mills employed in such work yield from 15 to 25 per cent., wool purchased at 1½ annas and sold at 8 annas a lb., must necessarily yield a very much larger profit.

From the Proceedings of the Dewan of Mysore, No. 869—11, dated 19th April 1884, it will be seen, that the Company starts with valuable concessions, unusual advantages, and every safeguard against miscarriage. The latter condition is most essential in an undertaking which is bound to prove an example to all Public Companies, which may hereafter be started, to develop the enormous resources of this Province that lie at present unproductive, from want of Capital to work them; and which Capital can only be raised by the formation of Public Companies on a sound footing.

The Direction, and Board of Management, represent entirely local interests, and will therefore work the Mill on the most economic principles. The undertaking is also one that can be judged from results already obtained, and therefore does not contain the elements of conjecture, speculation, and calculation, as to probable results, on which industries new and untried in the Province must of necessity be based.

Among the Provisional Directors are some of the best known, and most influential public men of the Province, and their presence on the Board of Direction, is a guarantee, that neither promotion-money, bonus, nor commission shall be paid to any party. The appointment of two Ex-officio Directors, is a proof of the interest taken by the Government for advancing this undertaking, and securing its success.

The remuneration of the Agents will consist of 10 per cent on the net profits of the Company.

It is expected that the Mill will be erected and the additional machinery set up and fully at work, before the end of December 1884.

Applications for shares must be accompanied by a payment of 10 Rs. per share The subscription list will be closed on the 31st August 1884.

Should no allotment be made, the deposit will be returned in full.

Prospectuses, Articles of Association, and Forms of application for shares, may be obtained from the Secretary's Office, Bangalore.

PROSPECTUS.

This Company is formed for the purpose of taking over the "Bangalore Steam Woollen Mills,"—Machinery, Fixtures, and Good-will, at a valuation of 30,800 Rs. in 308 fully paid-up shares of 100 Rs. each; and for importing additional machinery so as to run 1,500 spindles, producing 1,000 lb. of yarn and 50 looms weaving 750 yards of cloth per day. And after the Woollen business has been firmly established; or whenever the Directors shall be of opinion that, it will be advantageous to the Shareholders, to extend the Woollen works, or to introduce the manufacture of Cotton, or Silk, and the same be passed by votes of the Shareholders at a General Meeting, then remaining half of the Shares, or such portion thereof as may be voted, shall be issued, and the Shareholders shall have the prior right of subscribing for the same to the extent of the Shares already held by each.

The Machinery and Plant of the existing Mill consist of a complete set of wool carding, spinning, weaving, milling and finishing machines; a 12 H. P. Steam Engine, Hydraulic and Hand-baling presses, Sewing machines, Hand-looms, Spinning wheels, &c., &c.

A Woollen Factory employing manual labor was established, as an experiment, by Mr. Standish Lee in 1877, to ascertain what opening there was for such an undertaking. The receipts commenced with Rs. 10—10—0 in September of that year and reached Rs. 4,624 in December 1879. The experimental stage having therefore ceased, the Proprietor was induced to order out machinery with all the latest improvements and to procure the necessary steam power. These machines have now been working for some time, and the monthly average out-turn, since January 1884, is about Rs. 3,000.

The books of the Mill are open to intending subscribers, for ascertaining the facts set forth above, and for judging the profits made.

The following fact will suffice to show that the undertaking must pay large dividents. Cotton is purchased at Madras at 4 annas per lb., spun there by the steam mills, and the yarn sold, with a profit, at 5¼ annas per lb. The average price of wool is 1½ annas per lb., and Woollen goods, it is well known, fetch larger returns than Cotton. If, therefore, Cotton purchased at 4 annas, can be sold as mule twist at 5¼ annas, and mills employed in such work yield from 15 to 25 per cent., wool purchased at 1½ annas and sold at 8 annas a lb., must necessarily yield a very much larger profit.

From the Proceedings of the Dewan of Mysore, No. 869—11, dated 19th April 1884, it will be seen, that the Company starts with valuable concessions, unusual advantages, and every safeguard against miscarriage. The latter condition is most essential in an undertaking which is bound to prove an example to all Public Companies, which may hereafter be started, to develop the enormous resources of this Province that lie at present unproductive, from want of Capital to work them; and which Capital can only be raised by the formation of Public Companies on a sound footing.

The Direction, and Board of Management, represent entirely local interests, and will therefore work the Mill on the most economic principles. The undertaking is also one that can be judged from results already obtained, and therefore does not contain the elements of conjecture, speculation, and calculation, as to probable results, on which industries new and untried in the Province must of necessity be based.

Among the Provisional Directors are some of the best known, and most influential public men of the Province, and their presence on the Board of Direction, is a guarantee, that neither promotion-money, bonus, nor commission shall be paid to any party. The appointment of two Ex-officio Directors, is a proof of the interest taken by the Government for advancing this undertaking, and securing its success.

The remuneration of the Agents will consist of 10 per cent on the net profits of the Company.

It is expected that the Mill will be erected and the additional machinery set up and fully at work, before the end of December 1884.

Applications for shares must be accompanied by a payment of 10 Rs. per share The subscription list will be closed on the 31st August 1884.

Should no allotment be made, the deposit will be returned in full.

Prospectuses, Articles of Association, and Forms of application for shares, may be obtained from the Secretary's Office, Bangalore.

Absent.—E. R. Subbarayer, Esq., Exe. Engr.

I. Read the Deputy Commissioner's (Mr. Meiklejohn's) remarks on the 6th Resolution of the last meeting to the effect that the Members of the Sub-Committee formed for re-valuing the houses in order to assess tax on them more correctly being themselves house owners, the Vice-President should have been the President of the Sub-Committee.

It was never intended to divest the Vice-President of his powers of superintendence and control over this matter. The Members merely undertook to assist him in this tedious work, but feel disappointed at the remark as it shows a want of confidence in the Members and accordingly they unanimously resolve to record their remonstrance against it.

II. The accounts for July 1884 were read and passed.

III. With regard to the Market—Resolved that in consultation with the Executive Engineer a set of pillars be run up (as in Bangalore Market) in the centre of the building alongside of the side pillars which have at present to sustain a great weight and therefore give way to it occasioning repeated repairs.

IV. Resolved that all Municipal works in the current year be given to Gulam Mohadin alias Roshan Sahib, his rate (which is 11 per cent less than the estimated cost) being the most favorable of those tendered to-day.

V. In conclusion the Board feel that they cannot dissolve this meeting before recording their appreciation of the very keen interest taken by the late Deputy Commissioner Mr. Meiklejohn in all matters Municipal. Really and truly the perseverance with which Mr. Meiklejohn attended to the Municipal affairs as evidenced by the cleanliness of the Town, the thriving condition of the belt of trees round it (which are calculated to prevent fever), the good state of the roads, the healthy appearance of the public garden, &c., &c. cannot be forgotten by the people of Chikmagalur, and as their representatives, therefore, the Members resolve to ask the Vice-President to convey to Mr. Meiklejohn their heart felt thanks for his exertions.

Notifications by the Govt. of India: Resident: Chief Judge, &c.

No. 125, Met.—27-8.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Government of India, in the Revenue and Agricultural Department (Meteorological),—dated Simla, the 19th September 1884.

Read—

Summary of the Weather Reports for August 1884.

Except at a few stations in the north-west of India the barometer has been generally low in the past month. The depression has been most strongly marked in Orissa, Ganjam, and the Central Provinces in the east, and in Guzerat and Sind in the west. Otherwise, with the single exception, shortly to be noticed, the relative distribution of pressure has been fairly in accordance with that which is usual at the time of year. In August there exists, as a general rule, a broad band of relatively low barometer stretching from the Indus Valley south-eastward to Behar, but, in the present month, this normal band was divided into two portions and formed two distinct areas of low pressure, one lying over Behar and Chutia Nagpur, the other over the Indus Valley. This change in the distribution of pressure coincided with a considerable variation of the winds from their normal character and consequently of the weather of Northern India.

Of travelling cyclonic disturbances, such as usually appear during the summer monsoon, there have been no examples of importance during the present month.

Temperature has been a little above the average at most of the Carnatic and Deccan stations and locally at a few places in Northern India also, but in general the temperature of the month has been below the average. In the Punjab and North-Western Provinces the changes of temperature have been sudden and considerable, but in other parts of the country the departures from the mean have as a rule been slight and gradual.

The humidity of the atmosphere has been slightly in excess over Northern and Central India, but in the peninsula the amount of moisture has shown either a slight deficiency, or, as on the Bombay coast, an almost exact agreement with the average.

The rainfall returns display considerable variations in the amount of precipitation. In the Punjab, with the exception of Murree, Rawalpindi, Simla, and Delhi, there has been more or less deficiency on the average, while over nearly the whole of the North-Western Provinces, on the contrary, there has been excessive rain. At Allahabad, however, a region of deficient rainfall commences, and from that station eastwards, in Behar, Bengal, and as far as Burma, the present month has been one of general deficiency. Over the central parts of the country the departures from the average were very irregular, ranging from an excess of 12 inches at the stations of Jubbulpore and Sutna to a deficiency of 5 inches at Khandwa. Rajputana, like the Punjab, has had a somewhat scanty rainfall, while Sind and Guzerat, though deficient on the mean of all stations, show irregularities similar in character to those of the more central parts of the country. On the west coast from Ratnagiri southwards, as well as at the inland stations of Belgaum, Mercara, Madura, Salem, and Wellington, the rain-fall has been above the average, but both on the coast to the north of Ratnagiri and at almost every peninsula station to the east of the Ghauts, the amount of rain has been below the average of the month.

The largest total fall in the month has been 42 inches at Mercara, and there were 38 inches at Moulmein, 34 inches at Ratnagiri and Akyab, 32 inches at Mangalore, 30 inches at Karwar, and 27 inches at Goa and Simla. According to the data the largest number of wet days, 27, occurred in Burma and on the west coast, while the Central Provinces had 25 and Bengal (excluding Behar) and the North-Western Provinces 23.

Very heavy falls of rain were experienced in the west on the 28th and 29th, and in the North-West Himalaya and neighbouring region on the 7th, 10th, and partially on the 12th.

The following table sums up the rainfall returns under the divisions adopted in the weather summaries previously issued. It will be noticed that the deficiency reported from Behar and mentioned in the text is masked in the table by the excessive rain which has fallen in the North-Western Provinces and similarly the excess which is shown in Bombay, Madras, and Mysore is due to the heavy rain which occurred within a limited portion of the west coast and not to general excess over the whole region :—

REVISED FORMS OF IMPERIAL INLAND AND FOREIGN (POSTAL) MONEY ORDERS.

To the Deputy Commissioners, Treasury Department, and the Assistant Commissioner, Chitaldroog Sub-Division, Circular No. 1597, dated 25*th September* 1884.

The Comptroller has the honor to forward revised forms of Imperial Inland and Foreign (Postal) Money Orders received from the British Post Office for the use of the District and Taluk Treasuries.

2. The forms seem to be somewhat complex, but on examination it will be seen that a party wanting a Money Order has only to be supplied with a form from the Treasury, the present form of application being discontinued and has then to enter the particulars provided for in one side of the forms, headed "Particulars of Money Order," and pay the required amount into the Treasury. The remitter must not write anything on the other side of the forms. The Treasury Officer (District or Taluk) will give the remitter a receipt for the money received in the form now in use. The entire Money Order form will then be sent from the Taluk to the District Treasury which will in all cases forward it to the Postmaster, Bangalore, as at present, accompanied by a treasury certificate of credit.

3. As regards payments, full directions are given in the forms.

4. The revised forms should be brought into use from 1st October 1884, and the blank forms of the present Imperial Money Order application should be destroyed.

(N. B.—In the space marked "Coupon," the remitter may, if he wishes, enter the purpose for which the remittance is made.)

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

POSTAGE ENVELOPES &C.,—PROHIBITING THE SALE OF PORTIONS OF A PACKET.

To—The Treasury Officers, Districts and Taluks, Circular No. 1598, dated 4th October 1884.

The Officer in charge of the Resident's Treasury, Bangalore, having brought to notice that portions of a packet of British postage stamp envelopes, &c., are frequently sold by Amildars contrary to rule, the Comptroller has the honor to draw the attention of Treasury Officers, District and Taluk, to Appendix E, Rule V of the Civil Account Code, Part I, which clearly lays down that such envelopes should be sold in packets containing 16 each, neither more nor less, and to request that the rule may be strictly enforced in future.

SAVINGS BANK DEPOSITS ON ACCOUNT OF SECURITIES TO GOVERNMENT.

Circular No. 1599, dated 9th October 1884.

To obviate misapprehension the Comptroller has the honor to draw the attention of Treasury Officers to Circular No. 1006, dated 31st May, 1873, which prescribes that when Savings Banks deposits are accepted as security to Government for any purpose, they must be accompanied by a letter of agreement executed by the depositor and addressed to the District Treasury Officer, to the effect that the deposit will not be payable to him without the express written sanction of the officer who accepted it.

The circular referred to permits depositors to draw the interest without the intervention of the officer, but the agreement provides that the depositor will not claim payment of interest if the officer should forbid it.

The Pass Books may be held by the depositors in order to carry out the intention of the circular, but it is necessary as a precautionary arrangement that the Treasury Officer should distinctly record on the fly leaf of the Pass Book as well as in the Savings Bank Ledger Account of the depositor kept in the Treasury, not only the name of the depositor but also the purpose of the deposit and the date, &c., of his letter of agreement: thus—being his security accepted by (name of officer) on account of

as per depositor's letter of agreement dated

1 Petition from Krishnappa.
1 President's endorsement No. 188 of 8th July 1884.
1 Board's Proceedings relating to the Pete Shanbhogs while Colonel Tredway Clarke was President, dated 13th July 1868.

Resolution.—When the mohatarfa was transferred to the Municipality in 1868, its collection establishment was also transferred.

The Board then in view to secure better efficiency in the working of the Department attached salaries to the office of Shanbhogs and declared them personal and not hereditary offices. To prevent any hardship resulting from this to the Shanbhogs in office then, they were brought on the collection establishment as paid servants. The extract from the said resolution passed by the Board so far back as 1868 is herewith appended. From this it is clear that the Shanbhogs have no more right than any other salaried officers in the Department. For these reasons the Board is unable to entertain the claims of the petitioner Krishnappa.

A. H. MACINTIRE,
President, Town Ml. Commn.

Extract from Resolution of Board's Proceedings, dated 13th July 1868.

In the opinion of the majority of the Members of the Board the duty should be performed in future by duly appointed individuals whose responsibility will be more clearly defined than heretofore, but as the effect of such an arrangement will be to set aside the claims of hissadars as well as numerous pensioners, the officiating Shanbhogs apprehend that these claims will be made the subject of many suits which will be filed against them in the Courts. The Board would therefore desire to ensure for the Shanbhogs who may be appointed to the office.

Such protection as could be afforded by the Commissioners in declaring the salaries attached to the offices to be wholly personal and payable only to the actual officiators.

"Judge" means the presiding Judicial Officer of every Civil and Criminal Court by whatever name he is designated.

"Government" means the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

CHAPTER II.

ADVOCATES AND PLEADERS.

Who may practise before Courts.

Section 4.—Except as provided in the Codes of Civil and Criminal Procedure, or in any other law for the time being in force, no person shall appear, plead or act for another in any Court in Mysore unless he has been enrolled as an Advocate or Pleader under this Regulation:

Provided that every person accused before any Criminal Court with an offence may, with the permission of the Court, but not otherwise, employ any person to assist him in his defence:

Provided further that any person ex-officio, or otherwise, authorized to act for Government in respect of any judicial proceeding, may make and do appearances, acts and applications, within the scope of his authority on behalf of Government.

Courts in which Advocates may practise.

Section 5.—Advocates duly enrolled under the provisions of this Regulation shall be entitled to appear, plead and act in the Chief Court of Mysore and in all Courts subordinate thereto, civil or criminal.

Section 6.—There shall be two grades of Pleaders, namely, Pleaders of the 1st grade and Pleaders of the 2nd grade.

Courts in which 1st Grade Pleaders may practise.

Section 7.—A Pleader of the 1st grade shall be entitled to appear, plead and act in any Civil Court situate within the District, as defined in the Code of Civil Procedure, for which he may be enrolled, and in all Criminal Courts, provided that he shall not be entitled to practise in the Chief Court.

Section 8.—A Pleader of the 2nd grade shall be entitled to appear, plead and act in any Munsiff's Court for which he may be enrolled and in the Courts of all Magistrates.

Section 9.—If, in any place where a Subordinate Judge's Court is established, there be not resident three practising Advocates or Pleaders of the 1st grade, the Chief Court may, after six months' notice of its intention so to do published in the official Gazette, authorize by name a sufficient number of Pleaders of the 2nd grade to practise in the Court of such Subordinate Judge.

2nd Grade Pleaders authorized to practise in Subordinate Judge's Court.

Section 10.—The Chief Court may, from time to time, make rules consistent with this Regulation as to the following matters, namely :—

Chief Court to make Rules in regard to qualifications and for enrolment.

(1) the qualifications for admission as Advocates or as Pleaders of the 1st or 2nd grade under this Regulation;

(2) the certificates which should accompany applications for such admission ; and

(3) the stamp fee payable for certificates of admission to be granted by the Chief Court under Section 11, or for the grant of renewed certificates under Section 12 of this Regulation.

Section 11.—Every person duly qualified in accordance with the Rules framed under Section 10, may apply to the Chief Court of Mysore to be enrolled as an Advocate or Pleader under this Regulation. The application shall be accompanied by the certificates and the stamp fee if any required by the said Rules.

Application for enrolment.

The Chief Court may, if it thinks fit, grant the application, and, on the application being granted, shall issue a certificate upon a stamp paper of the proper value if any prescribed by the Rules framed under Section 10.

The certificate granted under this section to a Pleader of the 1st or 2nd grade shall specify the Courts for which the applicant has been enrolled under Section 7 or 8 as the case may be.

The Chief Court shall thereupon renew the certificate for the current or next calendar year as the case may be : Provided that the Chief Court may decline to grant such application for proved bad character or other reason which, in the opinion of the Chief Court, unfits the applicant to continue as a Legal Practitioner.

A renewed certificate shall be issued upon a stamp paper of the proper value prescribed by Rules under Section 10.

On every such renewal, the certificate then in possession of the Pleader shall be given up to, and cancelled and retained by, the Chief Court.

Section 13.—The Chief Court may suspend or dismiss any Legal Practitioner, enrolled under the foregoing provisions, who shall be convicted of any criminal offence implying a defect of character which unfits him to be a Legal Practitioner, or who is guilty of fraudulent or grossly improper conduct in the discharge of his professional duty.

Suspension and dismissal of Legal Practitioners.

Section 14.—If any Legal Practitioner practising in the Chief Court or in any Court subordinate thereto shall be charged with or shall appear guilty of fraudulent or grossly improper conduct in the discharge of his professional duty, any Judge of such Court shall cause a formal charge to be drawn up setting forth concisely and exactly the alleged misconduct and shall send a copy of the said charge to the said Legal Practitioner and also a notice that on a day to be therein appointed such charge will be taken into consideration. Such copy and notice shall be served upon the Legal Practitioner at least ten days before the day so appointed. On such day or on any subsequent day to which the enquiry may be adjourned, the Court shall receive and record all evidence properly adduced in support of the charge or by the Legal Practitioner, and shall proceed to adjudicate upon the charge.

Inquiry into the improper conduct of Legal Practitioners.

Section 15.—If the Judge of any Court subordinate to the Chief Court shall find the charge established and consider that the Legal Practitioner should be suspended or dismissed in consequence, he shall record his finding and the grounds thereof and shall report the same together with the proceedings to the Chief Court, and the Chief Court shall proceed to acquit, suspend or dismiss the Legal Practitioner.

Report to Chief Court.

Section 16.—Such report, when made by the Judge of any Court subordinate to the District Court, or by any Magistrate subordinate to the Magistrate of the District, shall be submitted to the Judge of the District Court or to the Magistrate of the District who shall append to the report any remarks that he may think necessary and an expression of his own opinion of the case, and shall forward the record for the orders of the Chief Court.

Reports of subordinate Courts to be submitted through District Court and District Magistrate.

Section 17.—The Judge or Magistrate may, pending the investigation and orders of the Chief Court, suspend any Pleader in his own Court and in Courts subordinate thereto.

REPORT OF THE SELECT COMMITTEE

Appointed to consider a Regulation (No. of 1884) to consolidate and amend the Law relating to Revenue Officers and the Land Revenue in the Territories of Mysore.

2. The Committee beg to premise their report by stating that, while studying the Regulation, they have had before them the opinions of the leading Judicial and Revenue authorities of the Province, as well as those of a large number of officers and other persons consulted. To all these opinions, from whatever source, the fullest consideration has been given and in many instances suggestions have been adopted and, generally, the opinions put forward have been found very useful. The safe and proved lines of the Bombay Land Revenue Code, upon which the present Regulation is based, have been departed from only where the peculiar circumstances of the Mysore Province, comprised in existing law, practice and tenures, which after all differ very little from those of Bombay, absolutely call for such departure. The copy of the Draft Code accompanying this Report shows "literatim" the Code as amended by the Committee who now, as briefly as possible, note and endeavour to substantiate the additions and alterations they have recommended.

CHAPTER I.

(PRELIMINARY.)

Section 3.

3. In Section 3, the interpretation Clause, the Committee consider that by adding to Clause (19) in the 4th line after the word "partially," the words "or on fixed assessment," so as to extend the application of the clause in question to Kayamgutta villages, Clauses (20) and (21) may be omitted. In Clause (23) of the same section March has been substituted for July, and in Clause (26) the definition of "Village Accountant" being considered superfluous has been omitted. This last definition moreover has no place in the Bombay Land Revenue Code.

CHAPTER II.

(Constitution and Powers of Revenue Officers.)

Section 4.

4. Section 4 the Committee would alter so as to obviate the inconvenience of defining the powers of the Commissioner in a schedule.

Sections 6, 7, 8 and 9.

Sections 6, 7, 8 and 9 it is proposed to add to, so as to meet the case of a Sub-Division and a Sub-Division Officer peculiar to Mysore, and also to distinguish between an Assistant Commissioner in his capacity of Sub-Division Officer and as merely an Assistant Commissioner to whom particular duties have been assigned by the Deputy Commissioner as a temporary measure.

Section 17 (1.)

5. In Section 17 (1) a rather important alteration is proposed, the effect of which is to limit the number of village accounts to be kept by the holder of an alienated village to such as Government may consider absolutely necessary. The Committee think it would be a mistake to insist upon the preparation of the complete set as in Government villages; nor indeed, excepting in rare instances, do the data, necessary to the filling up of some of the forms, exist in alienated villages. This section moreover has no place in the Bombay Land Revenue Code, and it is believed that in Madras the practice is in accordance with the modification now proposed by the Committee.

Section 21.

6. To Section 21 the "Commissioner" has been added as one of the officers who shall appoint all the members of their establishments, while the "Deputy Superintendent of Survey" and the "Survey Settlement Officer" have been omitted. A proviso has been added to the section in question, to admit of Government extending the power of appointing the members of their establishments to some other officers also, as the Committee think it not unlikely that Government may be asked to decide upon such claims, or ambition, on the part of officers not mentioned in the section. The 2nd sub-division of Section 21 has, it will be seen, been materially altered, the object the Committee had in view being to provide for Shekdars and other subordinate officers who, in the section as it stood, would have remained unenacted for.

406

CHAPTER III.

(On the Security to be furnished by certain Revenue Officers and Liability of Principals and Sureties.)

Section 23.

7. To Section 23 the words "by a bond" have been added in the 11th line as making the meaning clearer.

Section 24.

8. As regards Section 24 the Committee consider that one month is not sufficient time to allow for a Revenue officer to provide fresh or additional security, and one month is therefore made the minimum, the extension of the period being left to the discretion of the Deputy Commissioner or Survey Superintendent.

Section 25.

9. Section 25, sub-division 2, will be less harsh with the words "or show sufficient cause for not doing so" interpolated after the word "directed" in the 3rd line.

Section 26.

10. The Committee consider it unnecessary, as being too vague and possibly mischievous, to enact that every person knowing where property of the kind alluded to in Section 26 is concealed shall be bound to give information of the same to the Deputy Commissioner, and accordingly the 2nd sub-division of the section in question has been so far altered.

CHAPTER IV.

(Of certain Acts prohibited to Revenue Officers and of their Punishment for Misconduct.)

Section 31.

11. The Committee consider that the permission under Section 31 should be given by Government alone and not by either the Deputy Commissioner or Superintendent of Survey.

A proviso exempting Village officers and Revenue officers under the grade of Shekdar from the prohibitions laid down in Clauses (1) and (2) of Section 31 is considered necessary. It would be hard to prevent such officers from engaging in trade or from making bonâ fide bids at auction, unless such officer himself happened to be the auctioneer.

Section 35.

12. Section 35 is considered superfluous, the chapter on appeals sufficing to meet the cases alluded to in the former.

CHAPTER V.

(Of Land and Land Revenue).

Section 40.

13. Section 40 has been altered so as to enact for the case of unalienated land only. The Bombay Land Revenue Code does not go further than this. The Committee quite recognize the desirability of asserting the right of Government to minerals, whenever the opportunity offers, and find some difficulty in showing that the present opportunity is not just as favorable for the assertion of that right in alienated as in unalienated lands. The question, however, of the existence or otherwise of the Royal prerogative in respect to mines and mineral products is a wider one and fraught with more importance when applied to alienated lands, and the Committee simply recommend leaving the question where it is at present and not declaring by legislation one way or the other. When the question, as to the right of the State to minerals in these alienated lands, arises, it will be time enough to decide it on more careful enquiry as to practice and precedent, than has yet been carried out. It may here be remarked that it is very improbable that any grant or other instrument of transfer executed by Government would be found other than silent as to mining rights. Section 69 of the Bombay Land Revenue Code has therefore been adopted with the retention however of the provisional clauses in the Draft of the Mysore Land Revenue Code.

14. Section 42 has been altered so as to obviate disputes between the villagers regarding grazing, such as would undoubtedly arise were the use of pasturage to be confined exclusively to the villagers of the village to which the lands belong or have been assigned. In Mysore the use of pasturage, in free pasturage land, has always been regulated by what is known as "Mámúl," a practice from which the Committee think it would be unwise to depart.

Section 42.

15. Section 45 of the Draft Code has been struck out in favor of Section 40 of the Bombay Land Revenue Code, which is more in accordance with the actually existing ruling in Mysore. Thus, for instance, Section 45 of the Draft Code embodies the obsolete rule regarding the exercise of the forest rights to reserved trees within two years of the settlement; whereas, as a matter of fact, all reservations of trees are made at the settlement once for all under the authority of Chief Commissioner's order No. 1796-1810—345, dated 6th August 1879. Section 40 of Bombay Land Revenue Code is complete and will, with the alterations made, fully meet the state of things in Mysore.

Section 45.

Sections 43 and 44 of the Draft Code serve the purpose of Section 41 of the Bombay Land Revenue Code and are allowed to stand; moreover the enumeration of the 9 descriptions of reserved timber in the Draft Code is considered desirable, which the Bombay Land Revenue Code does not contain.

Sections 43 and 44.

16. The 2nd sub-division of Section 48 regarding road side trees has been struck out as unnecessary and likely to give rise to groundless and vexatious applications.

17. The Committee consider the levy of the bare value of the tree, in a case where there is no question of encroachment on land, provided for in Section 49 as a punishment for unauthorized appropriation, quite insufficient. The power of imposing a summary fine, in addition, up to Rs. 50, has therefore been provided for.

Section 49.

18. The proposal by the Committee to omit that portion of Section 50 which reserves the power of Government to direct by law the levy of revenue on all lands whenever and so long as the exigencies of the State may render such levy necessary is based upon the ground that there is no object in declaring that right in the present enactment.

Section 50.

19. The Committee have added a Proviso to Section 59 based upon Section 134 of the Oudh Land Revenue Act No. XVII of 1876, not to mention the existing practice in Mysore, which they think will guard against any misuse of the powers conferred under the section in question.

Section 59.

20. The Committee have, with some diffidence, removed from Section 61, sub-division 2, the provision for compulsory countersignature of receipts by the Village Accountant. Holders of alienated villages are loud in their protests against the provision in question, stating that very often there is no Village Accountant at all and that, where there is one, the mere fact of rendering his countersignature necessary would give him undue power to annoy the superior holder, not to mention the general inconvenience of his very frequent absence just when he is wanted. The Committee are quite aware of the advantage of having Village Accountants in alienated villages, but they are also aware of the very great difference between holders of many villages, such as a jahgir for instance, and the holder of a single and perhaps small village: the former have to employ and be dependent upon their Shanbhogs, but the latter would be put to great inconvenience if not allowed to manage his own affairs.

Section 61.

CHAPTER VI.

(Of the Occupancy of Unalienated Land and the Rights of Occupants).

21. Section 75 has been assimilated to Section 72 of the Bombay Land Revenue Code. The specification of Hindu, Muhammadan and Buddhist was, in the latter, intentional, owing to the application of the Succession Act. As the same reason holds good in Mysore, the section has been altered accordingly.

Sections 72 and 75.

CHAPTER VII.

(Of Superior and Inferior Holders).

22. Very material changes are proposed in this Chapter, which will be best understood from the copy of the Draft appended. What the Committee have done has been to discard the classification into "Kandayam Tenant" and "Occupancy Tenant" and to substitute for the former "Kadim Tenant," the enactments in behalf of the "Kandayam Tenant" as drafted in the Code being but little altered for the "Kadim Tenant."

Section 85.

23. The definition of a "Kadim Tenant" in the 4th sub-division of Section 85 has been assimilated to Section 245, it being necessary to declare not only the rights but also the responsibilities of a "Kadim Tenant." The Committee also consider it advisable that both rights and responsibilities under this section should be enforced by the Deputy Commissioner alone, and they have added the necessary provision to the section.

"Occupancy Tenant" finding no place in this Chapter, Section 83 of the Bombay Land Revenue Code has been introduced as a very necessary definition of tenant's rights generally. Its provisions contain what may be called the presumptive clause of duration of tenancy as against the land-lord, the effect of which will be to practically throw the "onus probandi" on the latter in case of dispute. It also declares the right of the land-lord to enhance the rent according to local usage, or otherwise, if such right fairly belongs to him, or to evict for non-payment of rent.

24. The reasons which have influenced the Committee in arriving at an opinion which excludes "Occupancy ryots" altogether from the enactment may be briefly summed up as follows :—

The status which the original draft confers on an occupancy ryot is not in any way based on the state of things at the time of the passing of the village from the hands of Government to those of the alienee, which is the broad principle which, the Committee think, should alone regulate the present enactment regarding the relations of land-lord and tenant. Had the Committee proposed to retain the sections relating to an "occupancy tenant," they would have also proposed to make his rights heritable and transferable property, subject probably to the right, in the latter case, of pre-emption on the part of the superior holder. The superior holders know perfectly well what a "Kadim Tenant" is, and the status which it is now sought by the Committee to confer upon him by legislation, is quite well understood, and, in the case of such a tenant, the objections of the superior holders are disarmed of the strong argument very freely used, that they brought the cultivators to the village, in fact that they are their own ryots. But the acquisition by a tenant of occupancy rights, under Section 86 of the Draft Code, is viewed with the most lively alarm and dissatisfaction, especially if those rights are to be made transferable. It is believed by the Committee that one of the chief objections on the part of the superior holders to any enactment in favor of occupancy tenants lies in the terms, peculiar to Mysore, under which the tenant cultivates both dry and wet lands of the superior holder. The tenant holds, very often, his dry lands at a low money rate, on condition that he cultivates the wet land also, receiving a certain share of the produce ; if he objected to cultivate the wet lands, the superior holder would probably object to his holding the dry land, at any rate on favorable terms. The superior holder, for the above reason, dreads the acquisition of occupancy rights which would put the tenant beyond his control, or make him in any way independent, as regards the dry lands. No doubt the superior holder would like to see the ancient tenant equally dependent upon him, but the rights of the "Kadim Tenant" are so palpable that little or no objection was made, when the Committee gave a hearing to a very large number of mandars on the 21st ultimo, to his getting the status contemplated ; while, as regards the intended "Occupancy Tenant," there could be no mistaking the strong and genuine feeling of opposition to the contemplated enactment.

Section 86.

25. A broad and general distinction between ancient and modern tenants, leaving the rest to the ordinary courts, is all that in the opinion of the Committee should be enacted. When the Bombay Land Revenue Code was first introduced on the 28th January 1875, it contained almost precisely the lines now suggested by the Committee but so complex were the relations considered to be between land-lord and tenant, that the Land Revenue Code, as now law, does not go nearly so far as the original draft. Precise legislation on definite points between the two classes is not in the opinion of the Committee either advisable or necessary, nor is anything of the kind provided for either in Bombay or Madras.

26. As regards Para 87 the amended definition of "Kadim Tenant" in Section 85 and the omission of "Occupancy Tenant" renders its retention unnecessary.

Section 85.

27. In Section 88 the words "or forfeiture of tenure" have been added after the words "voluntary relinquishment" to meet the possibility of such cases arising.

Section 88.

28. To Clause (a) of Section 89 the words "or revision survey under Section 123" have been added.

Section 89.

29. In Section 92 which deals with enhancement or abatement of rent by the Deputy Commissioner in the case of a "Kadim Ryot", such decision has been made final, on a recommendation supported by the Chief Judge.

Section 92.

30. A very important proviso has been added to Section 93 to provide for the relations of Múlvargdars and Múlgenidars. The proviso will speak for itself, but the Committee may state that they are aware of the existence of such cases in Mysore and that legislation is strongly recommended by the High Court of Bombay (See Indian Law Reports 4, Bombay; para 473) as the only way to remedy the grievances of the Múlvargdar. See also on this question Section 29 of the North-Western Provinces' Rent Act XII of 1881.

Section 93.

31. To Section 101 very considerable additions have been made which will fully explain themselves.

Section 101.

32. The Committee have added an important saving clause after Section 111, qualifying the whole of Chapter VII.

Section 111.

33. A slight alteration has been made in Section 119 by substituting for the words "cultivated with coffee" the words "held on coffee tenure" so as to extend the application of the section to lands cultivated with cardamoms.

Section 119.

34. Section 121—The Committee propose to omit the first sub-division which would only perpetuate a procedure which was advisedly made obsolete in Mysore long ago. The second sub-division is scarcely necessary in Mysore where the rates always take effect in the year after they are announced, and the occupant has plenty of time to consider what he should do as to retaining his land or not.

Section 121.

35. The Committee consider that in Section 124, which applies entirely to revised assessments, Clauses (b) and (c) should be omitted. There has only very lately been published a Resolution of the Bombay Government which takes a favorable view of eliminating the clauses in question from Section 107 of the Bombay Land Revenue Code. Clause (c) the Committee have no hesitation in recommending to be struck out; but, as regards Clause (b), although the members are unanimous in suggesting its omission, the motives which actuate them are different, two of their number basing their recommendation on principle, while the third member does so entirely as a matter of expediency and concession applicable to a particular case.

Section 124.

36. In Section 141 the officers who may summarily enquire into cases of injuring boundary marks have been limited to the Deputy Commissioner and Survey officers of not less rank than an Assistant Superintendent; while the words "or unauthorizedly erecting a boundary mark," such a case having actually occurred, has been added after the word "boundary mark" in the 5th line.

Section 141.

CHAPTER X.

(Of Lands within the Sites of Villages, Towns and Cities).

37. This Chapter has been recast very much on the lines of Bombay Act IV of 1868, under which, it may be remarked, no city survey or inquiry has ever yet been carried out in Mysore. The prosecution of city surveys is quite a question for the future. The Chapter, as now altered and modified, provides for the institution of a city survey and inquiry at any time Government may deem fit, and for the regulation of its operations. The limit of 5 years as the term of possession to acquire prescriptive right is not deemed too liberal by the Committee.

CHAPTER XI.

(On the Realization of Land Revenue and other Revenue Demands).

38. A proviso has been added to Section 158 for the immediate sale of perishable articles.

Section 158.

39. It will be seen that Section 172 has been considerably altered in the text and almost entirely in spirit. For the section, even in its amended form, only two of the Committee are answerable, one of their number, Mr. Krishna Rao, having, from the first, consistently opposed the retention in any form whatever of the imprisonment clause as it has already come to be spoken of in Mysore, so much attention has it attracted. In this view he is supported by almost all the local and other officers who have been consulted, that is to say, so far as objecting to the section as it stands at present in the Draft Code is concerned. The Committee obtained information that in the Southern Division of the Bombay Presidency the section had never once been put in force since the passing of the Bombay Land Revenue Code. Premising, then, that this is only the opinion of two of the Committee, the section as it stands is considered almost useless if it is to be put in force against any but wilful or fraudulent defaulters. To employ its power against what may be called an honest defaulter, only when all the other methods of recovery have failed, is very illogical.

Section 172.

That the power conveyed by the section has not been used in Bombay is no proof however that it has not done good or that it should entirely be dispensed with, as the knowledge that the power existed probably deterred the very kind of defaulters it is now proposed to retain it against.

In almost all the Provinces throughout India some such power of imprisonment is provided for, in the Punjab it being the very first mode of recovery laid down. The section as now amended is taken from the Madras Code. One of the Committee considers it likely to cause mischief, if retained in any shape at all; the other two Members consider that it is no more likely to cause mischief than most other measures which have to be adopted in protection of State and social interests, and moreover the defaulter can always obtain stay of proceedings, so far as this Regulation is concerned, under Section 179. In the opposite view of this question it is urged that imprisonment for private debts may not impossibly soon become a thing of the past which would make the present enactment in behalf of State debts all the more untimely.

Section 179.

In the 2nd proviso to Section 172 exemption from arrest of females has been newly provided for.

Section 172.

40. The Committee, supported in their opinion by almost all the officers consulted, have provided in the 4th sub-division of Section 177 for making over the whole of the surplus receipts to the superior holder on restoration of the village after attachment.

Section 177.

41. Similarly supported the Committee have provided in Section 184 for the stay of sale if the defaulter pay arrears, or furnish security, under Section 179, any time before the property is knocked down.

Section 184.

42. In Section 192 notification of re-sale has been rendered unnecessary if the re-sale take place within 7 days from the date fixed for the original sale. The Committee think that this will save a great deal of unnecessary work.

Section 192.

CHAPTER XIV.

(Revenue Jurisdiction.)

43. Section 230, on the bar of certain suits, and especially the proviso Clause (i) and its illustrations represent a very difficult piece of legislation, but the Committee accept the section as it stands with the addition however of the illustration in the corresponding section of the Bombay Jurisdiction Act, omitted in the Draft Code now under report. Clause (j) has been altered. "An instrument or sannad given by or by order of the Government" seems too vague a definition and moreover it is not taken in its entirety from the Bombay Jurisdiction Act. The Committee prefer the insertion, instead, of the words "Any other written grant by the Mysore Government subsequent to 1832, expressly creating or confirming such exemption." Clause (f) has been excluded in consideration of the saving clause added to Chapter VII and the modifications made in Sections 92 and 101.

Section 230.

Section 231.

44. In Section 231, Clause (a) has been omitted as being, in the opinion of the Committee, out of place in an enactment of this kind. The remedy, in such cases as are cited in Clause (a), is often at once applied by the Revenue authorities on representation, and if no redress is obtained by the aggrieved party, he can then go to the courts. The retention of the clause is almost an invitation to the ryots to ignore the Revenue authorities and bring every petty case before the civil courts and sometimes probably with the intention of annoying or injuring Government officers.

Section 231.

For the above reasons and for those given in the preceding para the whole of Section 231 is recommended to be omitted.

General.

45. The idea was at one time entertained by the Committee of introducing the greater part of the Bombay Hereditary Offices' Act into this Regulation, but on consideration of the advisability of introducing the latter without much delay and knowing that the Hereditary Offices' Act would require very careful studying, they have determined to recommend its introduction later on as a separate Act.

The surplus at the close of the year was Rs. 4,96,066 including the surplus revenue of the Assigned Tract, Rs. 1,64,534. This result may be accepted as satisfactory, being a very considerable improvement upon the figures for the previous year when the surplus was only Rs. 1,18,896. This is due almost exclusively to the increased land revenue realized during the year. The actual collections under this head were Rs. 73,34,476 against Rs. 70,21,777 in 1882—83, showing an increase of Rs. 3,12,699. About one half of this increase was due to the larger collection of past years' arrears, and the other half to the increased land revenue demand which occurred chiefly in the taluks comprised within the present Districts of Mysore and Kadur, and which was attributable to extended cultivation following on successive favorable seasons.

Abkari, Forests and Stamps yielded very nearly the same amount in both years; while Sayer, an important item of revenue in former years, which stood before the Famine at 6 lakhs and went down to 3½ lakhs in 1882—83, has decreased still further, and yielded in the past year only Rs. 2,83,426. This marked fall was due to the prevalence of koleróga disease among the areca trees of the Malnad.

The ordinary expenditure during the past year was Rs. 1,01,39,513 or about a lakh less than in the previous year. It includes items of an exceptional nature, amounting to about 2 lakhs, which are not likely to recur in future years, such as the price paid to the Madras Government for Amrut Mahal cattle, Rs. 1,00,000; obsolete and mutilated copper coins, Rs. 70,053, &c. The normal expenditure may therefore be assumed to be about 99½ lakhs.

The most remarkable decrease of expenditure was under "Law and Justice including Jails." There was a decrease of Rs. 28,587 in the cost of the Civil and Sessions Courts owing to the appointment of 2 Native in lieu of European Judges, of Rs. 41,968 by the abolition of 5 Sub-Judge's Courts, and of Rs. 13,487 by the reduction of 4 Munsiff's Courts, making a total decrease of Rs. 84,042. Under "Jails" the cost of rations was less by about Rs. 12,424, and the charges on account of Mysore convicts at Port Blair by Rs. 1,02,378. This accounts for the total decrease of about 2 lakhs under "Law and Justice including Jails."

The new Department of Amrut Mahal was nearly self-supporting if we exclude the lakh of rupees paid to the Madras Government as the price of the Amrut Mahal cattle.

The reductions of Establishments in all Departments have nearly been completed, and a High Court with 3 Judges has been formed as promised in my address to you last year. The increased cost on account of this Court has been met by the abolition of the District Court at Bangalore and of the Subordinate Judge's Courts at Mysore and Chikmagalur.

The revision of village establishments by the substitution of service inam lands for cash payments from the Treasury is still under discussion owing to some differences of opinion in regard to the advantages of the proposed measure. The subject is one of great importance, and the Government will be glad to have your opinion on it.

You will observe from the foregoing remarks that the normal income of the past year, after excluding items of an extraordinary nature, such as the 1½ lakhs of arrears of land revenue, ¾ lakh, sale proceeds of obsolete copper coins, &c., was about 104½ lakhs, against a normal expenditure of 99½ lakhs. The expenditure is likely to remain at the same figure for some years to come, but the maintenance of the income at 104½ lakhs is entirely dependent upon the permanence of the improvement in the land revenue which took place last year, and upon our getting not less than 4½ lakhs from the sale of sandalwood.

The foregoing figures include the revenue and expenditure of the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore. The revenue amounted to Rs. 3,32,325, and the expenditure to Rs. 1,67,791, leaving a surplus of Rs. 1,64,534. Under orders from the Government of India, the Revenue Administration of the Civil and Military Station was transferred to the Resident on 1st April 1884. The Mysore Government has been allowed to retain the surplus revenues of the Tract in question for the years 1881—82 and 1882—83, and the disposal of the surplus of 1883—84 and of future years is now under the consideration of His Excellency the Viceroy.

In the State Railway, Mysore to Bangalore, 87 miles, the receipts amounted to Rs. 3,11,429 and the expenditure to Rs. 1,90,625, the net earnings being Rs. 1,20,804 or 2·72 per cent on a capital outlay of 44 lakhs.

The capital expenditure on the State Railway during the past year amounted to Rs. 7,55,464 as follows :—

	Rs.
On Bangalore-Mysore line	91,443
On Bangalore-Tumkur line..	6,64,021
Total....	7,55,464

During the current year, a further expenditure of about 1¼ lakhs has been incurred in completing the Tumkur line which was recently opened for public traffic. The capital expenditure on this section amounts to Rs. 16,46,955. It promises to be fairly remunerative, for since the 11th August 1884 when it was opened, it has yielded an average net profit of over Rs. 1,000 per week, being at the rate of 3·27 per cent per annum on the capital outlay. The Government are anxious to push on this Railway as soon as possible to Harihar, so as to connect it with the Southern Mahratta Railway. They have already succeeded in carrying it a further distance of 11 miles to Gubbi, an important centre of trade, by using surplus stores and by a cash outlay of about 1¼ lakhs in the current year. The total cost of the Tumkur-Gubbi section including all charges, and the maintenance for one year will be Rs. 2,94,924.

Thus on the Railway from Bangalore to Gubbi, 54 miles, the total outlay amounts to Rs. 19,41,879 at a rate of Rs. 36,000 a mile, and very nearly absorbs the proceeds of the Railway loan of 20 lakhs which, in my speech of last year I represented to you, had realized Rs. 19,56,064.

Thus if we take the whole system of Railway open from Mysore to Gubbi, the State possesses 141 miles costing Rs. 63½ lakhs at a rate of about Rs. 45,000 per mile. This result may be considered satisfactory, inasmuch as the average cost of construction in Mysore is Rs. 25,000 less per mile than the average on 7 other metre gauge lines in India.

By strict economy in first construction, the State anticipates a larger return for its money, and I think that by the end of the year the State may fairly expect to raise its rate of profit on the whole of its Railway capital from 2½ to more than 3 per cent.

It is now in contemplation at once to carry on the Railway from Gubbi to Tiptur, a further distance of 33 miles, and the Government expect to be able to provide for this purpose 8½ lakhs during the current year; a further sum of 6 lakhs will probably be required next year for the complete equipment of this section.

The section from Tiptur to Harihar, 125 miles, has already been surveyed, and for its construction a capital of about 60 lakhs is required. It will be impossible to provide this sum out of current revenue. We have already constructed 141 miles of Railway, and we propose adding to it 33 miles in the current year. The total length constructed out of current revenue and a small loan of 20 lakhs will thus amount to 174 miles, representing a State property of the most useful kind of the value of over 80 lakhs of rupees.

But this most desirable result has not been obtained without the resources of the State being strained to the utmost. The completion of the project therefore is contingent upon the necessary capital being secured from outside. I need not assure you that Government have been unremitting in their endeavours to find the necessary capital. They are deeply impressed with the importance of the line as a safe-guard against famines, and the present uncertainty in the weather would point to the necessity of the work being pushed on without avoidable delay.

This leads naturally to a consideration of the unfavorable prospect of this year's seasons. The South-west monsoon has been a failure, more or less, throughout the greater part of the Districts of Tumkur, Chitaldroog, Bangalore, Kolar and Mysore. In the Mysore District, except in a few tâluks, nearly the whole of the early crop has been lost; the later and more important dry crop throughout the whole of the affected area is in a precarious condition; cattle are beginning to suffer from want of fodder, and prices show a tendency to rise. An early North-east monsoon may enable the Province to return to its normal condition without appreciable suffering; but if, unfortunately, the seasons continue unfavorable, the Government will have to face ere long a condition of serious and wide-spread distress. At the present moment, therefore, the enquiry naturally suggests itself whether we are better prepared now to meet a famine than we were 8 years ago.

Among measures of protection, the first place undoubtedly belongs to works of irrigation. Owing to the physical peculiarities of Mysore, however, there is very little scope for extension of irrigation by means of new works. The area under irrigation is only about 15 per cent of the total cultivation, and excepting the small tract commanded by channels drawn from perennial rivers, the whole of the irrigation in the country is dependent upon its numerous rain-fed tanks. There are about 38,000 such tanks, large and small, which so cover every part of the country that it is now extremely difficult to find a site suitable for a new tank. Little therefore remains to be done by the Government of the present day beyond restoring and maintaining the old works.

We cannot conceal from ourselves the fact that a large number of these tanks are in complete ruin. The failure of our system of tank management is due to the non-recognition of the important fact that the ryot is jointly interested with Government in the maintenance of this chief source of irrigation. At one time undue importance was given to the responsibility of Government for the up-keep of the tanks, the ryot's liability being altogether ignored, and when Government found that its costly agency could not, with any prospect of adequate return for its capital, undertake the management of the tanks in the Province, the ryot was called upon to take charge of the majority of the tanks. But the ryot had by this time lost all traditions of combination for works of public utility, nor were the Civil officers in a position to enforce the ryot's liabilities in an efficient manner. The various inams and privileges attaching to upkeep by ryots had been swept away, and cesses had been imposed on the understanding that the work would be done by Government. Thus by emphasizing at different times, the responsibility of one or the other of the two bodies interested in the tanks, and by neglecting the interests of the other, the tanks on the preservation of which so much depends, have been allowed to deteriorate.

Any reform in our tank system must start with a clear recognition of the fact that it is beyond the ability of Government to undertake the repair and maintenance of all the tanks in the Province with any ultimate benefit to its revenue, nor will it be equitable to throw the burden on the ryots after the village system or what little remained of it has been disorganized, and after the ryot has tacitly been relieved of his responsibilities by the imposition of special cesses for the repair of tanks.

Under these circumstances, it is now proposed to draw a clear line between tanks which Government should reserve for direct management through its Public Works Department, and tanks that should be left to be dealt with by ryots under the supervision of the Revenue Department. Though from long disuse, there may not be the same skill available in villagers for the construction and repair of tanks, it is hoped that under a system of local government in respect of tanks which I shall indicate below, and with sympathetic watching and seasonable advice from the Revenue and Public Works Departments, the ryots will before long be able to restore such of the tanks as may be assigned to their management. The proposal is to reserve tanks yielding more than Rs. 500 revenue under the direct control of the Public Works Department. The number of such tanks is only 790, and from the large revenue they yield, from the heaviness of the cost of their repair and from the risk involved in their breach, it is desirable that they should be managed by the skilled agency under Government. Tanks yielding less than Rs. 500 will be handed over to the management of the villagers concerned, subject however to the responsible control of the Revenue officer. But in enforcing the responsibilities of the villagers, no hard and fast rules will be laid down. It is the rigidity of general rules applied without regard to local and traditional peculiarities that have made all the well-meant efforts of Government to better the condition of the ryot almost nugatory. In many instances, concessions granted to the ryot have been so hampered by conditions, or the process for obtaining them has been so complicated, that practically little benefit has resulted from them. The system proposed will, it is hoped, be sufficiently elastic to admit of its easy application to the varying conditions of the maidan and the malnad, or of places where capital and intelligence are forthcoming, and places where ryots are too poor and ignorant to do any thing without State aid.

In the first place it is proposed to relieve the ryot of the one anna irrigation cess under tanks yielding less than 500 Rs. revenue on condition of his doing the annual repairs to his tank. In the case of all works other than maintenance, whole or partial remissions of wet kandayam for one or more years will be granted in order to enable the ryots immediately to carry out the needful works. The remission thus granted will in each case be fixed with reference to the probable cost of the work. For instance, in the case of tanks requiring earth-work which might exceed what would be required under annual repairs, one or two years' wet kandayam may be remitted. If masonry and stone work has to be done, a remission of wet kandayam for 3 or 4 years may probably be required, and a similar concession for 5 or 7 years may suffice if a tank requires complete restoration. If, from want of capital, enterprise or combination in the village, it is not possible to have the tank-work done by the ryots, the Deputy Commissioner will have authority to undertake it, with the advice of the Department Public Works, wholly at the expense of Government, or to do the portion of work requiring skill or capital and to get the remainder (chiefly earth-work) done by the villagers on concessions similar to those specified above. Thus in the case of every tank yielding below Rs. 500 and requiring repair or restoration, it will rest with the ryots interested whether, with the liberal concessions above indicated, they will promptly do the work themselves or await the more tardy process of Government execution.

If the motives of selfinterest which will thus be enlisted in our service should fail to have the desired effect, the restoration of the most important tanks now in disuse will be thrown open to private capital and enterprise under what is already well known to you as the "Chauthayi" system. This system will be simplified and the remission of one-fourth of the assessment, instead of being limited as at present to 30 years, or until the introduction of the survey settlement, will be made a permanent concession. In the case of tanks requiring an exceptionally heavy outlay for their repair or restoration, concessions even more liberal will be granted.

There need be no apprehension that, under any of the proposals above made, there will be any needless sacrifice of Government interests. Under the present system, when a tank breaches, it is many years before it is repaired. As a partial relief half the wet assessment is remitted. The ryots pay half assessment for some years, and when the prospects of the tank being repaired get more and more remote, they resign their lands altogether and Government loses the entire revenue on the "Atchkat" until the tank is restored. The partial and temporary remissions of revenue under the proposed scheme will generally be but a small fraction of the cost of repair and restoration by Government agency, and the continuous prosperity which will result from the prompt restoration of tanks will be an advantage upon which no money value can be placed.

I hope I have now sufficiently explained to you the proposed new scheme for the working of our tank system. How far the Public Works Department shall aid the Amildars in the performance of their "Marámmat" duties and in what manner the Deputy Commissioners shall carry out the concessions above noted, are matters of detail which shall be elaborated with due care in consultation with the responsible officers of Government.

By the adoption of this scheme, His Highness' Government are sanguine that the tank system throughout the Province can be restored to a condition of thorough efficiency within the next 10 or 15 years. A forecast of all the important works to be undertaken by the Government within next 10 years is already in course of preparation.

After all that may be done to improve our tanks, however, irrigation is but a broken reed to lean upon in times of famine. It has already been explained to you that the irrigable area is only 15 per cent of the area under cultivation. Of this small area the greater portion is dependent upon tanks for irrigation, and these tanks, which are themselves fed by the rains, fail us just when their support is needed most. We have thus to throw ourselves on our Railways as our sure and only protection against some of the chief dangers of recurrent famines. The services which Railways are capable of rendering during times of famine are well known to you. A Railway is able to carry food to distressed tracts at a very small cost, varying from $\frac{1}{4}$th to $\frac{1}{5}$th of a pie per maund per mile. In the famine of 1876-78, the tract which suffered most was over 50 and 100 miles away from the nearest Railway, and it is right through the whole length of this tract that the proposed Bangalore-Harihar Railway will run. When completed it will readily distribute food for 25 miles on either side or 50 miles in all. The tract served by it will thus be 50 miles wide by 212 miles long, or 10,600 square miles, which is fully $\frac{2}{3}$rds of the area where the most intense distress was felt in the years 1876 to 1878. But to place this extent of country beyond the risk of suffering, it becomes a matter of vital necessity that the Railway from Tiptur to Harihar, which I have already alluded to, should be completed at once. The dreadful teachings of the famine of 1876-78 are still fresh in our minds. Despite a liberal expenditure of 160 lakhs of rupees and the adoption of every measure which an enlightened humanity could suggest, fully a million of the population was swept away by that famine. Six years have scarcely elapsed since the close of that calamity, and the condition of the country is again causing grave anxiety. There is however no occasion as yet to apprehend a famine. The present position merely demands close watchfulness and preparedness for every contingency. But I take this opportunity of giving you the assurance that if, owing to the failure of the north-east monsoon, the laboring classes should be left without employment, Government will be able to meet the difficulty by the extension of its ordinary public works, but if the pressure should increase, it will become necessary to provide suitable relief works in convenient localities, and to organize a system of village relief which has been demonstrated to be the most humane and efficient method of helping those who may be unable to work without any disruption of the ordinary bonds of village society and without the demoralization inevitable in the establishment of Relief kitchens.

I will now refer to a few of the more important matters connected with the ordinary administration, to which you drew attention last year. The Representatives of some Districts complained of the hardship caused by the annual public sale of the pasturage of unoccupied Government lands, and pointed out that the system subjected the villagers to extortion and annoyance at the hands of the purchaser of this right. The two most important proposals made to remedy this evil are :—1*stly*, to substitute for the annual sale a small rate of, say, ¼ anna on every rupee of the Land revenue ; and, 2*ndly*, to levy a small tax of ½ anna per head of cattle. These measures would not be wholly free from objection ; the former, which would possess the advantage of simplicity, is likely to be regarded as imposing an additional burden on the land, while the latter, though quite legitimate in itself, will place too much power in the hands of the Village Shanbhog, and may not unfrequently lead to frauds. Pending further consideration therefore, the Government have, during the current year, adopted tentatively a scheme whereunder each village is given the option of securing the right to the pasturage within its limits for a price fixed upon the average realization during the past two years. I shall be glad to have your views on this subject in our subsequent meetings.

Another question discussed last year was the levy of an irrigation cess from Inam villages. I am glad to be able to inform you that Government now see their way to abolishing it.

The mode of dealing with excess in minor inams has also recently engaged the attention of Government. The present rule is to ascertain the authorized extent and to confirm it with the addition of 10 per cent, resuming and assessing the remainder, if any, under enjoyment. This rule is doubtless liberal, if the true extent of the original grant can be ascertained. But this is seldom the case, as the inamdar is generally unable to adduce any proof beyond long enjoyment, and as the boundaries specified in the grant are scarcely identifiable. With a view therefore to remove any just cause for dissatisfaction on the part of this numerous class of petty inamdars, the Government have directed that all inams, the survey valuation of which as now enjoyed does not exceed Rs. 5 should be confirmed in full, and that in the case of inams exceeding Rs. 5 in value, one half of the excess should be confirmed as inam, the other half being charged with full assessment ; provided that, in no case, more than three times the survey valuation is confirmed as inam. This rule will apply to all inams which are enjoyed in land. But in cases where the inam is not located as is generally the case in the Malnad, where merely so much money is granted out of a particular warg, it will be impossible to apply the foregoing rule. It is believed that such cases will be liberally dealt with by confirming land equivalent to $\frac{11}{10}$ths of the original money value of the inam, with the additional concession that lands included in the inamdar's warg and converted into garden after the grant of the inam, shall be valued at rice and not garden rates.

The proposed Land Revenue and Local Funds Regulations which were discussed at our last year's meeting, have not yet been passed into law. The opinions of all Revenue and Judicial officers have been obtained in regard to them. Both Regulations with the opinions collected have been referred to Committees composed of able and experienced officers. I have not yet been favored with the recommendations of the committee appointed to consider the Local Funds Regulation, but I understand that their recommendations do not involve any material alterations of the Draft already before the public. The Committee on the Land Revenue Code have submitted their recommendations. They do not suggest any material alterations except upon two points ; one of them relates to the relations of inamdar and tenant (Chapter VII of the Draft). The committee are of opinion that no "right of occupancy" as defined in Section 86 of the Draft should be acquired by mere possession for 12 or any number of years, but they provide for the preservation of the right of all "Kadim" tenants, whether they pay rent in kind or money.

Another alteration of importance which the Committee recommend is the omission of Clauses (b) and (c) of Section 124 of the Draft. Sections 123 and 124 follow Sections 106 and 107 of the Bombay Code. The former provides that, at the end of the term fixed for the present settlement, a revised assessment shall be fixed, not with reference to improvements made from private capital and resources, but with reference to general considerations of the value of the land, whether as to soil or situation, prices of produce or facilities of communication. The next section provides that nothing in the preceding section shall prevent a revised assessment being fixed—

(a) with reference to any improvement effected at the cost of Government ; or

(b) with reference to the value of any natural advantage, when the improvement effected from private capital and resources consists only in having created the means of utilizing such advantage ; or

(c) with reference to any improvement which is the result only of the ordinary operations of husbandry.

Clause (a) is in every way reasonable. But Clause (b) has been so construed as to authorize the taxing of private wells, which in practice are the only kind of tenant's improvements in this country. Water below the surface is a "natural advantage," and the digging of a well by the ryot is only "creating the means for utilizing such advantage." Upon this ground the strict justice of the law which permits the taxing of private wells is perhaps defensible, but there can be no doubt whatever of the inexpediency of taxing these useful works which owe their origin so much to the labor and capital of the ryot. I believe that in omitting this provision from our Code, we are only slightly anticipating the course of legislation in British India. Clause (c), which refers to the taxing of improvements which are the result of the ordinary operations of husbandry, may also be omitted, as there have been such great differences of opinion as to their meaning. These alterations will give to the ryot's tenure under our settlement an element of certainty and permanency to a much larger extent than now enjoyed. It will perhaps be a further gain in this direction to provide in Section 123 that a revised assessment should only be made with reference to the general value of the land as to situation, price of produce and facilities of communication, and thereby to obviate the necessity for a re-classification of soils at the revised settlement. The ryot will thus be freed once for all from the inconveniences attending a re-survey and re-classification of his fields. On these and other questions connected with the Code, the Government will be glad to have your views. The papers placed at your disposal explain all the proposed alterations in full. The Government are anxious that this most important measure should come into effect from 1st April next and hope to be able to secure that end.

The details of the revision of the Medical and Educational Establishments recently carried out are well known to you. By the substitution of Native for European subordinate medical staff, that Department will be made more suitable for the requirements of the Native State. The educational scheme, which provides for definite and gradual promotions to all grades of Educational officers, will, it is believed, secure for that Department, an efficient staff of teachers working under a healthy stimulus and enjoying prospects of advancement which compare not unfavorably with those offered by other branches of the public service.

Mysore, as you may remember, was represented at the Calcutta Exhibition in 1883—84. Owing to short notice and the difficulty in collecting suitable exhibits, the arts and industries of Mysore could neither be fully nor fairly represented.

The report of the local committee is not yet to hand, but as soon as it is received copies will be distributed for information throughout the different districts. The net cost to the State has been about 6,000 Rs., a very small sum considering the interests involved.

The exhibits from Mysore, few as they were, attracted considerable attention, and I am happy to say that the Province obtained

2 gold medals.
9 first class certificates and silver medals.
11 second do and bronze medals.
8 third class certificates.

The works most highly appreciated were wood inlaid with ivory and sandalwood carvings.

Raw products, silk fabics, spices, medicines, honey, coffee, &c., attracted attention, while the paintings by Mr. Rangasami Pille and the plans by the students of the Engineering School were highly praised. The model railway carriages exhibited by Messrs. Appavu Chetti and Sons were excellent, and I am glad to say that foreign Railways have already given orders to that Firm for the construction of some passenger vehicles. There was also a demand for Mysore metal-ware, goods in horn, and fancy work.

Exhibitions are shortly to be held both in London and Bombay, and to secure a proper representation of Mysore at those places, steps will now be taken to collect some of the best specimens in art and manufacture, and at the same time a collection of all kinds will be made in Bangalore with a view to making our industries better known and appreciated locally.

Gentlemen, it now only remains for me to assure you of the great interest which His Highness the Maharaja takes in the success of these annual meetings. It is his hope and wish that this Assembly will become, year after year, more and more useful to the country. By careful watching of the working of the Administration in all branches and by bringing to notice any defects or shortcomings in them, and by practical suggestions for improving the condition of all classes of His Highness' subjects, you have it in your power to contribute in some measure to the good government of the country. The lively interest you evince in the discussion of public questions and your intelligent appreciation of the intentions and policy of Government are a source of strength to His Highness' advisers.

In conclusion, let me thank you, gentlemen, most heartily for the trouble you have taken to attend this meeting.

Horse-gram, halasandi, and black and green-gram have been sown in many places. The recent fall of rain has improved the prospects of the season, but more rain is needed. Water supply good. Pasturage improving. Public health generally good. Prices: second sort rice 11 seers, ragi 23 seers and horse-gram 17 seers per rupee.

Shimoga District.—Two inches 45 cents of rain at Shimoga. Standing crops in fair condition, but high lying rice lands require more rain in parts. In parts of the Davangere Taluk the crops are withering. Arecanut is being gathered in Sagar and Nagar. Horse-gram, kurasani, haralu and ragi were sown and paddy seedlings transplanted in Sagar. Prospects of season good, except in the Davangere Taluk. Public health generally good. Cattle are in a reduced condition in Davangere owing to want of pasturage. Prices have risen in Davangere. Cattle healthy, but still in poor condition on account of scarcity of forage. Drinking water fairly sufficient. Pasturage much improved. Prices: second sort rice 10 seers, ragi 25 seers and horse-gram 20½ seers per rupee.

Kolar District.—Two inches and 8 cents of rain at Kolar. Tanks have received from 10 days to 1½ months' supply of water. Standing crops are improving. Prospects of season fair. Conditions.

I. The minimum annual revenue guaranteed shall be payable to Government in twelve equal monthly instalments. The contractor shall pay into the District Treasury of Bangalore the whole amount of the duty inclusive of the local cess payable to Government at the rates fixed by Government on the arrack issued from the distillery in each month on or before the 15th of the following month. If the duty payable on the issues of arrack up to the end of any month be not sufficient to make up the amount of the monthly instalments of the minimum guaranteed revenue up to that month, the contractor shall pay such further sum as may be required to make up the deficiency. The excess sale of any month shall be available to make up any deficiency in any other month of the same official year. If the above payments are not made on or before the 15th of the month following that for which they are due, interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum will be charged from that date on all the arrears outstanding; and should the default continue after the lapse of the month in which the payments are due, the arrears with the interest due shall be recovered by attachment and sale of the property of the contractor in the manner provided for by the rules for the time being in force for the recovery of arrears of land revenue. And it shall further be at the discretion of the Dewan upon the report of the Deputy Commissioner of Bangalore to declare the contract cancelled, to direct the forfeiture of the deposit made by the contractor, and to cause the business to be carried on by Government officers or otherwise, at the expense and risk of the contractor, during the unexpired period of his contract.

II. The accounts for each year shall be closed separately. If the duty payable to Government on the arrack issued during the year exceed the minimum revenue guaranteed for the year, the contractor will be allowed a deduction from the duty payable by him equal to one anna on every rupee of the amount of such excess. But the excess of one year will not be available to make up any deficiency in the amount of the guaranteed revenue of any other year of the contract.

III. The contractor will be required to manufacture within the enclosure of the Government Distillery near Bangalore, or at such other place as may be fixed by the Deputy Commissioner and to establish wholesale depôts in such places as shall be appointed by the Deputy Commissioner. The distillery and depôts shall be open at all times for inspection by the Deputy Commissioner or any official appointed for that purpose. No arrack shall be taken out of the distillery until it has been measured and tested by an official appointed for that purpose. The contractor will further be required to pay monthly to Government a rent of Rs. 150 for the use of the distillery buildings and to keep the said buildings in a state of thorough repair. The contractor shall take over any arrack distilled by the previous contractors which may remain as stock on hand on the 1st April 1884, paying to them such compensation for the same as may be fixed by the Deputy Commissioner with the sanction of the Dewan.

IV. The arrack manufactured shall be of good quality. The articles used in distilling shall be approved by the Deputy Commissioner and be of good quality, and shall be shown to, and passed by, the Distillery Supervisor or other official appointed for the purpose before being received into the distillery. No ingredients obnoxious to health shall be used in distilling or put into the arrack after it has been made, and all the ingredients used shall be in the established initial proportion or in such other proportion as may hereafter be fixed by Government so as to ensure a proper control by the officers of Government over the results of the distillation effected by the contractor daily.

V. The contractor shall keep true and correct accounts in the prescribed forms of his receipts and disbursements, and of the quantity and strength of the spirits manufactured, received and issued in the distillery and in each depôt, and of all the materials received and expended daily at the distillery. He shall produce such accounts whenever required to do so for inspection by the Deputy Commissioner, the Head Supervisor or any other official appointed for the purpose.

VI. The distiller [illegible] be bound always to have a month's supply and not less than 14,000 gallons of liquor in store, and in order that this may be the case from 1st April 1884, he will be allowed to commence distilling before that date, provided that no liquor so distilled shall be sold or passed out of his custody or that of his employés before the 1st April 1884. The contractor shall be allowed to have wholesale shops in all Taluk kasabas and large towns approved by the Deputy Commissioner or Sub-Division Officer within whose jurisdiction they may be situated. A list of all such places will be furnished on application to the Deputy Commissioner or Sub-Division Officer, and the contractor shall pay the prescribed license fee of Rs. 2 per shop per month.

VII. The contractor shall not sell arrack by retail either in the distillery or in the wholesale shops except as provided for in the rules laid down under Conditions X and XII.

VIII. The retail shops will be under the management of the Deputy Commissioners of the Districts, and Officers in charge of Sub-Divisions of Districts and in Municipal towns, where so ordered by the Dewan, under the Municipal President, or Vice-President of such towns; and no new retail shops shall be opened except with their sanction and at such places appointed by them, and they are competent to order any shops to be closed on grounds of public expediency without any claim to compensation on the part of the contractor.

IX. Licenses for the retail shops will be issued in the usual form by the above officers on payment of such rates of license fees as may, from time to time, be fixed by the Government.

The licenses will provide for the sale of the arrack at the regulated prices and at the prescribed strength and for other necessary conditions. The retail vendors will be required to procure their liquor from such wholesale shops as may be nearest to them or from such others as they may elect once yearly to take it from. They will also be required to permit the contractor or his agent, the excise officers, or any public servant duly authorized, free access to their shops in order to see that no irregularities take place, and to keep true and correct accounts of the quantity and strength of liquor received by them each day, and the prices charged for the same, and to produce the accounts for inspection whenever required so to do by the contractor or his agents, or any Government official authorized to call for them.

X. The following rules regarding the issue of the arrack from the distillery shall be observed:—

(a) No arrack shall ordinarily be issued at a strength above 20° under Proof, but should the contractor or retail vendor desire to issue at a higher strength than the above, the spirit so issued shall not be of a greater strength than Proof. Liquor of strength at Proof shall be issued from the distillery in two dozen quart bottles, four dozen pints and so on for lower denominations of flasks as for English and Foreign spirits; and it shall be sold by wholesale to retail vendors in bottles intact as issued from the distillery, with the seals affixed on them by the Head Supervisor and under cover of the Head Supervisor's passes. The retail vendors shall issue such liquor only to respectable persons known to them on separate passes granted by the Head Supervisor to the retail vendors, and both wholesale and retail dealers shall account for such sales separately in the forms prescribed.

(b) Should the contractor wish to issue liquor of higher strength than Proof, he should obtain the special orders of the Deputy Commissioner therefor, through the Head Supervisor, who shall quote the same and issue passes accordingly to wholesale shops, and liquor so issued shall be sold and accounted for, as provided in Clause (a) of this para.

(c) All liquor issued at a strength above 20° under Proof and up to Proof shall be charged the duty on Proof, the rate on above Proof being raised proportionately according to the hydrometer's scales.

(d) No spirit below 20° under Proof shall be ordinarily issued from the distillery, but should there be a demand for liquor of lower strength than 20° under Proof, liquor at 30° under Proof may be specially issued from the distillery at proportionately reduced rates of duty, such liquor being kept and accounted for separately both in the wholesale depôts and in the retail shops.

XI. The arrack shall be sold as issued from the distillery and shall not be adulterated or diluted in any manner either in the wholesale or retail shops.

XII. The Government duty including the local cess of one anna in the [illegible] payable on arrack of the strength of 20° under Proof as well as the prices at [illegible] the same shall be sold (unadulterated and undiluted) at the wholesale and retail shops are hereby fixed as specified in the following table:—

—On new-moon day in September, Hindus have a full holiday. Morning-office or other new-moon days.

Partial leave can be granted by Heads of Offices to members of the various sects concerned for the festivals named "Madhvanavami," "Tikacharyara Punyadivasa" and "Rámanujacharyara Tirunakshatram" without deduction from the period allowed for casual or other leave.

The Head-quarter Offices may be closed on the last or other Saturday in each month.
